

Meeting of the Fremont Club.

Room No. 20 of the Cooper Institute was crowded last evening with gentlemen friendly to the nomination of John C. Fremont for President of the United States. A number of the old-school Abolitionists were also present, and participated in the proceedings.

The Hon. B. F. MANNERING called the meeting to order, and Mr. F. Gilbert was invited to preside. Mr. L. D. Darragh and Mr. David Plumb were nominated to act as Vice-Presidents, and Mr. L. W. Hopper to perform the duties of Secretary. It was then moved that an Executive Committee of six be appointed to perfect organization. The following gentlemen were named for that Committee: Sinclair Tunney, B. F. Mannering, George King, Frederick Hopper, J. V. Whipple, and George Church.

The Chairman then addressed the meeting. In the course of his remarks he criticized the administration of Mr. Lincoln, and yet, he said, it was the duty of the Club to stand by the President, and support the Administration in every measure which he might be compelled to take in the interest of the country.

He then called the Club in the name of the Republic, and said it was proposed to elect John C. Fremont for the Presidency for the term of four years.

He could say for the Patriotic that he would strike the needed blow for freedom. To add to the war he said, he desired the property of Rebels to pay the cost of the war. He did not see the terms of the Amnesty Proclamation, because they were too charitable, and he wanted the administration in every measure which he might be compelled to take to be stern and decided.

He would pledge his Patriotic to vigorous prosecution of the Rebels. He (Fremont) will find a path over the prostrate bodies of the Rebels. He will go to the Greek islands, or to the West Indies, or to Brazil and back again, or to pick up a few in Florida.

The Secretary then read the following platform, which was received with enthusiastic cheers:

PLATFORM OF THE FREMONT LEAGUE.—We,

members of the League, do hereby demand the immediate and unconditional restoration of the Government in the hands of men of firm energy, fixed principles, and uncompromising purity of heart; and we call upon the people of the nation to support us in our efforts to effect this end.

We demand that the Homestead Law, which is evidently designed to aid the Slaveholders, be repealed.

We demand that the slaves be freed at once, and that the slaves be given their freedom.

CITY ITEMS.

THE RE-D'ITALIA SPEAKS.—It will be seen on reference to our maritime list that the Italian frigate Re-d'Italia was spoken on the 10th inst., steaming southward, by the bark P. M. Miller, at this port, from St. John, N. B.

AMERICAN TRACT SOCIETY.—The financial year of this society closes April 1. The Committee desire its friends to know that the Society has expended more than $100,000 since the war began, and funds received from foreign lands, were used for the benefit of the colored people.

SEVERE ACCIDENT IN BROADWAY.—Professor Henry G. Cox, M. D., of the New-York Medical College and Charity Hospital, met with a severe accident a few days since. He had stepped from his carriage to the sidewalk, in Broadway near Fourteenth street, and was about to fasten his horse, when the animal moved backward. In yielding to her, Dr. Cox stumbled over the stamp of a tree which the Street Commissioner's Department had negligently allowed to remain in the sidewalk, suffered a fracture of his thigh bone, and was taken to the city hospital for many months past, and finally died.

CRIMES AND CASUALTIES.—A clerk in the exchange-office No. 116 South street was knocked down by one of three men who had entered and requested him to examine a bill. They then seized a box containing $100,000, and attempted to escape with it; but, owing to the efforts of the clerk, dropped their plunder and escaped. Yesterday Capt. Jonathan arrested Thomas McCoy, who was arrested as the man who committed the assault. He has already served out terms of imprisonment for the same offense, and is now serving another.

RESCUE OF SLAVES.—The slaves were rescued by the crew of the steamer New-York, which had been sent to search for them.

CRIMES AND CASUALTIES.—A negro was shot and killed by a white man in the city.
